Resolved, First, That we most respectfully recommend to all the churches of this body, faithful observance of the second regular midweek prayer meeting hour, every month, or as near to it as convenient, in special, united, fervent prayer to Almighty God: 1. For the unreserved consecration of every saved member; 2. For personal, hand to hand and heart-to-heart exertions in winning to the Saviour of lost sinners, the lost ones about us; 3. For the Holy Spirit to fill and empower in every great measure all his churches, ministers and people; 4. For full development of all the churches' unused forces and resources, and for the speedy and thorough preaching of the full gospel in America and all the world.

Resolved, Second, That we most respectfully recommend this plan for a monthly prayer and consecration service, at the regular time and place, to all of our own denomination, both in cities and elsewhere, and both to old and young, rich and poor, white and colored.

Resolved, Third, That we most cordially invite all of all other denominations who love our Lord Jesus Christ supremely to unite in fervent prayer and supplication, with us, for a most gracious revival of genuine religion, and to them, also, we most respectfully recommend this plan.

Resolved, Fourth, That inasmuch as all the great "movements" now on foot in church life must prove useless unless there shall be a mighty volume of prayer and the resultant power of the Holy Spirit shall fall upon us, that the pastors be urged to carry out the above resolutions.

REPORT .

REPORT OF EXECUTIVE BOARD.

The State Mission Board having completed another year's work, submits herein its annual report. The good results shown are due—

1. To the sacrificing toil of our good and faithful missionaries.

2. To the hearty and sincere co-operation of our pastors and leading laymen and elect women not a few.

3. The enthusiastic and good help rendered by Brother W. E. Wilkins in the closing weeks of our campaign.

4. The splendid service rendered by The Baptist Courier.

5. Last, and chiefly because of the mercy and blessings of our heavenly Father, whose good hand was upon us, whose Spirit inspired us and whose blessings crowned our labors.

Again, with a keen sense of our loss, we have to chronicle the death of one of the members of the Board, and also one of our best missionaries, Brother F. M. Satterwhite. His years were not many, for in the meridian of his life disease gripped him and he gently and peacefully fell on sleep. He was a good man, full of faith and unselfish toil.

The Policy of the Board.

By virtue of our indebtedness and the instructions of the Convention at Laurens, the policy of the Board the past year was strictly conservative. Much work we wished to do had to be deferred, yet we sought under these conditions to hold each point we had occupied and here and there when the opportunity was bright and call imperative to push into new fields.

The sphere of our missionary operations naturally divides into rural and town or city communities. This latter divides itself into mill towns and other towns.

1. The country church, once the chief source of Baptist power in South Carolina when this was a State without town or city, has become in many instances, by virtue of rapidly growing towns and cities and manufacturing centers, depleted in membership, discouraged in spirit and needs the helping hand of the State Board to enable them to maintain their existence and work.

In many sections of the State communities are becoming thickly settled and by the timely and friendly aid of the Board new churches are started and developed. So long as these conditions prevail in rural South Carolina, just so long will there be an open door and an inviting field for your Board's labors.

2. Towns and Cities. It has been the policy of the Board and will continue to be to keep its eye upon all new towns springing into existence, and all old towns in their growth, with a view to establishing mission stations, looking to the organizing of churches in every desirable spot on South Carolina soil. So that if our population increases and if the alien comes within our borders he will be compelled to hear the voice of a Baptist preacher in the land.

We mean to crowd the other folk in our effort to bring South Carolina as a trophy of divine grace to the feet of our blessed Lord. Columbia and Charleston are today our chief cities. To them we have been looking with anxious eyes. Your Board has gripped Columbia and feel by placing one more strong young man there our capital city will be sufficiently manned for the present. Now to Charleston we must turn. The little we have hitherto done has perhaps kept alive the things which remain. But from this time on our policy should be to make alive in Christ the things that are dead. By your permission and co-operation in this task the Board will lay its hands.

3. The mill towns. South Carolina is rapidly becoming a manufacturing State, and consequently changing our social, political, moral and religious status. Already about one-fifth of our white population in South Carolina have gathered about our cotton mills, furnishing a glorious opportunity to reach these people with the gospel; or by negligence a most fertile field for the political demagogue to ply his trade and the religious tramp to prey upon them.

Some of the presidents of these corporations, looking to the welfare of their operatives, are establishing Y. M. C. A.'s and other agencies for the social and moral benefit of their people. Our churches at these towns with inadequate equipments and an inefficient ministry must eventually go down in this unequal contest. So I am firmly convinced that our people must, if they measure up to this great need, enable the Board to pay adequate salaries to get our strongest men to settle as pastors at our mill towns to cope with these conditions.

Colportage.

Dr. T. M. Bailey has kindly and faithfully looked after what colportage work the Board has done the past year. There is a growing demand in some sections of the State for more of this work to be done.

Sunday School Work.

Bro. J. D. Moore, who has had charge of this work from its beginning, has been diligent and faithful in the discharge of the duties of his office. In addition to his many duties he has written an excellent booklet on State Missions, arranging same in thirteen lessons, making it eminently suitable to be used in Sunday schools and mission study classes.

The Board is under renewed obligations to the women in the State for their liberal support of our State Mission work. Their gifts the past year were far larger than ever before. We thank them for the promise of $7,000 for next year's work, and hope with the good start they have gotten they will far exceed this sum in their offerings.

The work of the past year by our missionaries has been to a high degree commendable, and the results of their labors as tabulated makes a fine showing. The Board had under its appointment for a part or whole of the year 135 men and fourteen women.

A summary of their labors is as follows:

Stations, 205; miles traveled, 79,777; days engaged, 10,845; sermons and addresses, 9,092; prayer meetings held, 3,269; religious visits made, 31,214; conversions, 1,844; baptisms, 1,754; received by letter, 1,589; restored, 140; membership in mission churches, 11,338; churches organized, 11; churches built, 12; expended on church buildings, $20,870.55; Sunday schools organized, 51; number schools at mission points, 196; teachers and scholars in mission schools, 10,446; raised for State Missions, $3,565.38; Home Missions, $1,038.86; Foreign Missions, $1,475.38; Orphanage, $1,026.13; Ministerial Education, $141.18; Aged Ministers, $381.91.

This summary, though partial, reveals an immense amount of labor and toil and real sacrifice by our workers.

The lady missionaries have been quietly and efficiently working and the results of their labors, as far as results can be tabulated in figures, are as follows:

Days engaged, 4,743; Sunday schools attended, 609; recruits secured for Sunday schools, 794; visits made, 16,112; tracts given away, 6,437; Scriptures given away, 597; garments distributed, 1,968; sick persons visited and helped, 1,009; children's meetings held, 644; mothers' meetings held, 161; teachers' meetings attended, 180; W. M. S.'s attended, 463; prayer meetings attended, 764; mission classes, 201.

Church Building.

The time has come in the judgment of the Board when a Church Building Department should be permanently established. Much has been done in other years in this line, but it seems wisest to have this department thoroughly organized and systematized so that our people may be directed in the important work of helping weak churches to build suitable houses of worship. Notwithstanding the debt on the Board and the great strain incident to this, the secretary was enabled to secure at the associations the sum of $1,000. In addition Brother McCaul, our missionary at Clemson College, has raised over $10,000.00 in cash and pledges. We hope by the next Convention that our people at Clemson will be worshiping in their own house. There are two churches, both in the Charleston Association, Cannon Street and Georgetown, that must be aided by the denomination to erect suitable buildings if our work is to move forward at these important points. In addition, therefore, to our regular gifts for State Missions your Board asks that a definite sum be suggested to be raised next year, and that this amount be apportioned the various associations.

Finances.

Your Board is compelled to bring to the attention of the Convention again the manner in which we are conducting our missionary and benevolent operations. Certainly there should be some radical change. When our Lord's work is to be hazarded on bad Sundays or depressions in cotton or other markets we are ever liable to failure. Without reference to the campaign we have just passed in our efforts for State Missions we turn with anxious hearts to Drs. Willingham and Gray and their fellow-helpers in the months just ahead. They are too valuable to our denomination to be sacrificed by ceaseless toil and a fearful anxiety by virtue of our haphazard methods.

We again call attention to the calendar schedule adopted a few years ago and urge that this or some other regular and systematic method of offerings be adopted by all our churches—so that all the Boards receive regular offerings and all apportionments be met.

The Christian farmer makes provision for his farm hand; the Christian housewife for her cook and washerwoman; the Christian merchant for his clerks; but few, if any, make the same sort of provision for his Lord's cause. The tragedy of our present method is seen in the Lord of Glory in the person of his servants pleading with those he saves: "Make me as one of your hired servants."

REPORT ON REPORT OF EXECUTIVE BOARD.

Your committee to whom was referred the Report of the Executive Board, beg to report:

1. We rejoice in the blessings of God upon our faithful Secretary and his co-laborers, and that they bring us the good news that the Board comes to the close of the year free of debt, and with a balance in the treasury.

2. We commend the faithfulness, energy and resourcefulness of our beloved Secretary, Dr. Derieux, but we do not believe our brethren composing the churches of this Convention ought to allow him to work beyond his strength, but to cheer him by sympathetic co-operation and prayer.

3. We commend the policy of the Board in looking after the new towns that are constantly springing up, and especially in looking after the people congregated in the mill districts, while the country church is neglected.

4. We recommend that the Church Building Department of the Board be presented to our people.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL DEPARTMENT.

Year Ending December 1st, 1911.

Year Ending December 1st, 1911.

Our fifth annual report is herewith submitted as briefly as possible:

I. In the Field. During the year the Sunday School Secretary has been engaged 227 days in attending or conducting meetings for the discussion of Sunday school work. Two thirds of the entire time, therefore, has been given to the field. He has travelled 6,855 miles, and has directly come in touch with 181 Sunday schools.

By his own personal efforts, 437 enrollments have been secured for Normal Course No. 1. Of this number, he has himself conducted classes in which 267 have received the Convention Normal diploma. This work has been done in meetings of days, usually lasting three or four days each. A total of 250 hours have been devoted to teaching the Manual in classes. Resides the class work, the Secretary has delivered 237 lectures and addresses during the year.

In addition to the Training work, he has personally conducted the grading and reorganization of seventeen Sunday schools and has carried on a religious census of the community in the interests of twelve schools. This has been done only in those instances where it seemed that the efficiency of the local workers would warrant outside assistance in taking an advanced step in this direction. The results of such work have proven most satisfactory.

II. In the Office: The remaining one third of the Secretary's time has been more than full, he having been at his desk on an average of twelve hours every day.

Supervision of the schools has been held, and today, a much larger number of schools have reported to the office of the Department than did so last year. In addition to the correspondence, your Secretary has written about fifty articles on various phases of the work during the year, some of which appeared in The Baptist Courier and other Baptist papers, and others as a series of Saturday evening talks in the Daily Record of Columbia.

Literature for State Mission Day in the Sunday schools, October 22nd, was prepared and sent out by the Secretary, in connection with which the Board issued the State Mission Lessons in pamphlet form.

III. Recommendations: We wish to offer the following suggestions:

1. To the Churches: Two things, viz:

(1) That they more generally take over the work of the schools and elect the officers and teachers thereof. The reports for 1911 indicate that conditions in this respect are practically the same as they were last year, that is, only 38 per cent. of the schools are under the control of the churches, definitely and organically, whose officers and teachers are elected by the churches in business sessions.

(2) That the churches institute classes for the training of their Sunday school workers in the Convention Normal Courses.

The highest efficiency is impossible without definite study on the part of the workers. We desire to urge that our pastors and churches will foster this work, by providing books if necessary, and by otherwise encouraging those who are to officiate or teach in the schools to better qualify themselves for their work.

2. To this Convention: Two things, viz:

(1) Shall we have a Summer Assembly? At the last session of the Convention, the matter of a summer meeting was placed in the hands of the committee in charge of the Sunday School Department. It seemed impossible to carry on a meeting last year, and the committee therefore decided not to undertake it, but without in any way intending to establish a precedent which should always be observed. We recommend, therefore, that this Convention determine whether or not an Assembly shall be held next summer; and that, if so, a committee be appointed by the Convention who shall be empowered to conduct it in the name of the Convention and under its patronage.

(2) That in view of the rapid increase in the number and enrollment of organized classes in our Sunday schools, we take into consideration the advisability of enlarging the Department at this point; and that together with the plans for establishing an Adult Department of the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention which are already under way, we strive to harness the great power in these organizations for the promotion of the general life and activities of the churches.

IV. Five Years of History. The Department is completing its half-decade of history. What advancement have the Sunday schools made in this time? Results of work among them can not be tabulated, and yet a brief synopsis of the progress which these years have witnessed will be appropriate at this time and in this connection.

1. The number of schools has increased more rapidly than the number of churches organized. The number of churches which do not have Sunday schools has been diminished from about seventy-three to less than fifty, and of the latter number many have branch schools, carried on by their members, of which no reports are kept either in the minutes of the churches or in those of the district associations. So that the total number of schools is sligthly greater than the number of Baptist churches in the State.

2. Evergreen schools. Five years ago, there were about 200 schools that went into winter quarters. Now there are less than fifty which do so. This does not include branch schools of which no reports are made regularly.

3. Enrollment has been increased in this time by more than 15,000, although greater efficiency rather than larger numbers has been stressed by the Department. The rate of increase in the Sunday school enrollment has been a little in excess of the rate of increase in the number of additions to our churches in the last five years.

4. Five years ago there were not more than twenty people in our schools who held diplomas in the Convention Normal Course. Now there are more than 500 who have trained themselves for the work of systematic studies. Then, one to every 225 officers and teachers had done training work: now there is one to every twelve of them.

5. Organized classes have increased rapidly—mostly Baracas and Philatheas. In five years past, their number has risen from twelve to more than 250. Class organization is in favor in all departments from the junior upward.

6. Other special departments have progressed almost as much. Cradle Rolls and Home Departments were practically unknown five years ago. Now, of the two, we have more than 150.

The Department does not claim these results as the fruits of its own labors only, nor are they other than the evidences of growth which is inward and which consists in a broader vision of the harvest fields and in a stronger faith in God and a brighter hope for the uture. J. D. MOORE, Secretary.

REPORT ON THE REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

Your committee to report on the Report of the Sunday School Committee recommend:

1. That Sunday school institutes during the year be held with the view of reaching not only every association, but as far as possible every community in the State.

2. That our pastors be requested to co-operate with our Secretary in his efforts to train our Sunday school workers, by means of the Sunday School Board's Normal Course.

3. That we endorse the recommendation of the committee, that the churches more generally take over the work of the Sunday schools, electing all officers and providing financial support.

4. That we repeat the recommendation made last year: that the Sunday School Committee be requested to call a Sunday School Convention to convene at a suitable time and place during the year, and that said Committee be requested to make all necessary arrangements for such a meeting.

W. J. NELSON,
E. P. EASTERLING,
B. K. MASON,
S. P. HAIR.

REPORT ON EVANGELISM.

This work has been incumbent upon Christians ever since the Master called down the Father's blessings upon his disciples as he and they stood together for the last time on Mt. Olivet. The disciples obeyed the command to "go" then, and as a result of their obedience we enjoy the blessed privileges of this good hour.

Evangelism is the chief business of the church today. Take away this phase of Christian work, and stagnation and death would follow. It is the keynote of all missionary endeavor and is therefore the hope of a lost world.

Local evangelism is a phase of pastoral work not to be despised, but is often crowded out in part at least by the numerous claims that must be presented and pressed on the hearts of the people. Especially is this true of our country churches most of which have no evening service, and at best have only two Sunday services per month.

Now for several years our State Mission Board has employed men to do special work along this line from which many of our churches and pastors have been greatly benefited; and at first it was hoped that from a financial point of view this work would be self sustaining. But not so. It appears that where such has been done the churches have contributed to its support and credited the amount thus contributed to their apportionment to State Missions. Thus it will be seen that when the Board is asked to employ an evengelist it is equivalent to asking for one more missionary for whose support no provision has been made. Your committee would recommend that where a church obtains the services of said evangelists, that whatever contribution is made to the brother for his services shall be extra, and not credited to said church's apportionment to State Missions.

Your committee has observed the fact that a tent meeting in our smaller towns and mill villages will attract a crowd both from the town and surrounding country. People who seldom if ever go to church will go to a tent meeting. It appears to the committee that if our State Board would employ and equip with a tent some man, a sane man, possessing evangelistic power, and send him out to aid the pastors of such towns and communities that a great work could be done in bringing into the kingdom these otherwise unreachable people.

Your committee would caution our evangelists and pastors against the tendency to make numbers at the fearful expense of bringing unregenerate people into the churches.

Respectfully submitted,

H. L. BAGGOTT.

TWENTIETH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF CONNIE MAXWELL ORPHANAGE.

In making its annual report to the Convention, your Board of Trustees makes grateful acknowledgment for the goodness and mercy of God. The large measure in which he has moved upon the hearts of our people, and the generous support which they have given our Orphanage, has made it possible to report the most successful year, with the largest income, since it was established in 1892.

Last year while the Convention was in session at Laurens the Convention Building at the Orphanage was burned down. The same day pledges to rebuild the building were made on the floor of the Convention and the new building is now complete.

The annual meeting of the Board of Trustees was held at the Orphanage May 23d. All of the members of the board were present except two. This was the nineteenth anniversary of the Orphanage and was celebrated by laying the corner-stone of the Terrill Smith Industrial Building which is now finished and occupied.

An unknown benefactor is erecting a sanitarium at the Orphanage at a cost of $5,000. This building is about half-finished.

Mrs. J. J. Major, of Anderson, has given $1,000 for the purpose of establishing a scholarship. We have also received a gift of $1,000 from the estate of R. B. Monk, of Campobello. We received from the Callaham Estate, in Anderson county, a bequest about equal to the cost of our water-works system. Our trustees decided to devote this bequest to paying for the water-works, and to erect a suitable memorial stating that it was the gift of Mr. Callaham.

The Orphanage is growing in size, with increasing responsibilities. We are fortunate in having a Superintendent who is equal to the demands made upon him. Much executive ability is required to carry on successfully these various interests committed to his care.

G. B. BUELL, President.

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF CONNIE MAXWELL ORPHANAGE TO THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

For the Year Ending November 30, 1911.

The year has been marked by steady progress in the various departments of work at the Orphanage, and as we look on the many busy months that have passed we gratefully acknowledge the oversight and guidance of our Heavenly Father, and record earnest appreciation of the support of the brotherhood.

Buildings.

It will be recalled that while the Convention was in session at Laurens last year house No. 6, known as Convention Building, burned to the ground. The insurance upon the building together with the pledges made at the Convention, were about sufficient to reconstruct the house. Our financial report shows that the building is not entirely paid for, as about $600 in pledges are still unredeemed. It will be understood that we lost not only the house but all the clothing and bed clothing and furniture as well, so that the entire loss was greater by perhaps $1,000 than the mere cost of the house. Four of the rooms have been furnished by friends, and we are letting each room bear a memorial card indicating the fact that it was individually furnished. The names in the rooms are as follows: Robert King, Hugh Z. Graham, J. W. Ferguson, and Annie G. McDowell. On the first day of April the new house was occupied and the happy family re-entered its doors. Mrs. McDaniel, the house-mother of the boys, returned to them on this date and it is no exaggeration to say that it was a happy re-united family that gathered to dedicate the building in prayer and praise. Mrs. McDaniel is a mother indeed to the boys and they recognized that they were blessed in her return.

The Terrill Smith Industrial Building was begun in the spring and the corner-stone was laid with Masonic ceremonies by Orlando Sheppard, Past Grand Master of the State, on the 23d day of May last. Addresses were delivered by brother Sheppard, the officiating Mason, and by Dr. W. C. Smith, nephew of Mr. Terrill Smith and the executor of his will. The building was subsequently finished and was occupied October 1st. The printing establishment was installed on the second floor and is a complete little job office. Mr. W. B. Tarkington, a capable printer and a fine Baptist gentleman, is in charge of this department and leads the boys in their work as well as to give them instruction in the "art preservative of all arts."

Last summer a generous Baptist brother, whose name we are not allowed to disclose, expressed his willingness to erect a Sanitarium on the Orphanage grounds. This building has been pushed towards completion but is just about half finished at present. The gratitude of all our Orphanage people has been expressed for this splendid gift, and we rank our unknown friend among the nobility.

Other Gifts.

Mrs. J. J. Major, of Anderson, has, during the year, paid into our treasury the sum of $1,000 for the purpose of founding a scholarship in memory of her mother. The amount has been invested and is yielding 8 per cent interest, secured by splendid real estate mortgage.

Mrs. R. B. Monk has paid $1,000 to carry out the wishes of her husband as expressed in his last will and testament. I suggest that this amount be devoted to the installation of electricity at the Orphanage. The work has already been done but no special arrangement made for payment of its introduction and it appears to me that this amount might pay for this extra expense and that a suitable inscription might be placed in one of our buildings in memory of brother Monk and his generous provision for the Orphanage.

I will also suggest that the unnamed cottage at the Orphanage, known as No. 9, hereafter bear the name of Cuthbert Cottage. The money received last year from the estate of Rev. Lucius Cuthbert was not designated in any way to perpetuate his memory. The amount of his legacy will cover the cost of this house and it would appear appropriate that it bear his name, and it is certainly appropriate that we should find some way in which to connect his name with the Orphanage in recognition of his kindly thought for the orphan children.

Acknowledgement is made of receipt of $197 from Mrs. Mary E. Clement, proceeds of an insurance policy on the life of her husband. Also of $25 from the estate of Robert King. Your attention is also called to a generous contribution of $150 from the Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias of South Carolina, and $120 from Head Camp Woodmen of the World of South Carolina. Receipt of residue from Callaham Estate in Anderson County has brought the total amount to $5,728.80. It has already been decided by the Board of Trustees, and is on record, that this amount offset the installation of waterworks at the Orphanage and that a suitable tablet be erected in one of the buildings in memory of Mr. Callaham.

The School.

No special change has been made in the standard of school work. Ten grades are maintained and a number of colleges receive our graduates without re-examination. The ninth and tenth grades now attend school the entire morning and work at manual tasks during the morning. The seventh and eighth grades engage in manual work during the morning and attend school in the afternoon.

Nine boys and girls finished the course and graduated last June. Their names are as follows: Elizabeth Peden, Leta White, Blanche Reep, Sallie Foy, Elise Ellison, Ruth Crick, Lena Padgett, Duva Nixon, and Don Altman. The address to the graduating class was delivered by Rev. George P. White, pastor at North Augusta.

Miss Jeannette Murdoch, the principal of the school, has devoted herself to its interests, not only with fidelity, but with signal ability and success. Mr. G. H. Smart has taught music four mornings each week. Seven teachers in all are employed.

Miscellaneous.

"Work Day" was observed September 30th and has yielded results amounting to about $5,000. This was a splendid amount to receive as result of one day's effort, and yet there is some question as to whether it is well to depend to so large extent on the observance of one day, as unfavorable weather or other causes might produce a great shortage in annual receipts. Unquestionably the apportionment plan is the thing for all our churches and Sunday schools and it would seem wise if all our people would co-operate in its observance.

Health has as a rule been good during the year. Four patients are now in the Sanitarium under the care of Miss Bond, who gives her time exclusively to the care of the sick. James Calk was operated upon for appendicitis some weeks ago and is now convalescent. The other patients have improved in a most gratifying way. Carey Bass spent three months at the Grady Hospital in Atlanta last winter and was treated by Atlanta surgeons. Connie Maxwell Orphanage was not charged a dollar by either the surgeons or the institution.

Improvements have been made at the Laundry that will make the work for the girls next year very much easier. It will also enable them to do their work much more quickly and to send the garments to the matrons in decidedly better condition. About 3,000 garments go to the Laundry every week.

One of the most conspicuous features of the Orphanage village is the spirit of the place. The buildings and material equipment are not so attractive or worthy as the spirit of fraternity and co-operation. For so large a number and so promiscuous a gathering it can be truthfully said that we have as a general thing marked co-operation among our workers and obedience on the part of the children. This is the highest test of an institution and the spirit that prevails is more important than equipment or annual receipts.

A feature of the year has been an effort to standardize the conduct and the expenses of each of the cottages. Our system is unique in that we have dining-room and kitchen in each cottage rather than at a central plant. It is unquestionable that this plan is more expensive though the advantages in the homelike life and natural rearing of the children more than counter-balance, as we believe, the extra cost. A system of checking has been installed by which account of every article sent to each house is tabulated. Under this system it can easily be discovered if a matron is extravagant or careless, either as to orders for clothing or orders for provisions. The inequality has at times been marked, as it is of course impossible always to secure conscientious and capable matrons. It is thought that the new system will work not only to the profit of the Orphanage financially but to the comfort and satisfaction of the matrons themselves.

The property equipment is now worth about $200,000, half of which, or thereabouts, represents buildings estimated at their original cost. This is no mean showing for twenty years of activity. A most gratifying feature of this statement is that it is all South Carolina money, neither Mr. Carnegie nor Mr. Rockefeller having had any part in it. It furthermore represents the gifts of our own Baptist people.

Acknowledgement is made of many shipments of boxes of dry goods, crates of poultry, barrels of flour, potatoes and various other articles. This feature of aid is of a very solid kind and substantially helps the work. The estimated value of these goods for the year is $3,353.45.

Farm and Garden.

The drought of the late summer was decidedly adverse to the gardens and the farm. Diligent attention on the part of Mr. D. M. Nixon at the Orphanage Farm and Mr. W. E. Cooper at the Maxwell Farm has succeeded in producing crops worth $11,085.42. This is only $63.12 in advance of last year, but under the conditions is an excellent showing for these capable and highly efficient men. Our reports show that we have produced for consumption: 12,675 gallons of milk; 1,000 bushels of potatoes; 65 tons of stover; 120 tons of ensilage; 24 tons of hay; 8 tons of mangels; 2,100 pounds of seed cotton; 5,000 pounds of beef and pork; 340 bushels of vegetables; 1,410 bushels of corn; 70 bushels of wheat; 300 bushels of oats; 85 bushels of fruit; 80 bushels of peas; 2,000 melons; 1,109 gallons of canned fruit.

To the Baptist State Convention, Greenwood, S. C.

Dear Brethren: I have examined for year ending November 30th, 1911, the books of Rev. A. T. Jamison, Superintendent of Connie Maxwell Orphanage, and find the same carefully and neatly kept, and correct.

Respectfully,
J. K. DURST, Auditor.

REPORT ON ORPHANAGE REPORTS.

With deepest gratitude to God the Convention may look back upon the record of achievement which the reports of the Superintendent of our Orphanage and the President of its Board of Trustees so strongly show. The apportionment asked of the denomination, though larger than ever before, has been fully reached. Nine associations met and exceeded the amounts asked of them; many others came very near the mark, and all did so well, that, with the generous personal contributions not included under this head we are permitted with mingled pride and humility to make this gratifying showing. Wonderfully hath God so wrought in the few short years of the life of our institution that there is to be shown the brethren as they come up in annual Convention to this city, its home, the splendid and valuable plant that is a credit to and the pride of our churches.

Three new buildings have been erected since our last meeting: the new Convention Building, modern in style and equipment, the Terrill Smith Industrial Building and the new Sanitarium, being erected by a friend of the institution who modestly conceals his identity, a structure that will fill an important need in the Orphanage village.

We note with gratitude the increasingly large personal gifts and bequests that evidence the place the Orphanage holds in the affections of our people.

We express hearty approbation of the action of the Trustees in perpetuating the memory of our departed brother, Lucius Cuthbert, by naming "Cuthbert Cottage" commemorating his bequest.

The success of the "Work Day" collection in our Sunday schools deserves special mention. The sum raised was larger than ever before; and while urging even greater diligence upon our Sunday schools, and that increased numbers avail themselves of the privilege of participation in this work of love, we especially call for no relaxation of effort on the part of pastors or churches, lest this free will offering of the Sunday schools be suffered to hinder and take the place of the regular church contribution.

Finally, on no department of our work has our heavenly Father more clearly set the mark of His divine approval, and to Him be given praise.

Respectfully submitted,
CHAS. A. SMITH, for Committee.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL EDUCATION.

We are glad to report that there has been no decrease in the number of ministerial students attending Furman University and the Furman Fitting School.

At the annual meeting of the Board thirty-three students applied for aid. The amount asked for by these students is between $3,300.00 and $3,400.00.

The Board announces with gratitude that the contributions from the associations of the State have increased from $1,485.16 last year to $2,093.25—an increase of nearly one-third and is an increase of over one hundred per cent. above the contributions of two years ago. The amount paid by students on notes is $261.00 as against $336.55 last year. The sum secured from the invested fund for this conventional year is $775.00. The present indebtedness of the Board is $1,126.98.

With these facts before them the Board at its last meeting decided to promise aid to the students for the first half of the session only, that is, February 1, 1912, and in its last conventional report the Board asked that apportionments for this object be as much as three thousand dollars, but the committee on apportionments made it twenty-five hundred dollars and the Convention so voted. The plain truth is that the Board cannot meet the demands that are now upon it unless more money is apportioned and raised for this purpose. The demands are greater because of the larger number of students and because of the increase in the board that they have to pay.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY MILLER.

JNO. M. DANIEL,
Sec. and Treasurer Board Min. Education.

I have examined the above and find it correct.

C. B. BOBO, Acting Auditor.

December, 1911.

REPORT ON REPORT ON MINISTERIAL EDUCATION.

Your committee to whom was referred the report of the Board of Ministerial Education find that thirty-three young men are being aided at Furman University at a cost of about $3,400 for this collegiate year. The income of the Board from all sources has been $3,129 25. This was not sufficient to meet its present needs; and besides debt from the two previous years is yet on the Board. At present the total indebtedness of the Board is $1,126.98.

We are glad to note that the contributions from the churches have shown a commendable increase over last year, and believe that a larger apportionment should be made for this Board.

Your committee would make the following recommendations:

1. That the Board be instructed to help students both in Furman University and in the Furman Fitting School, provided its funds will justify the expenditure, but if a choice must be made that the Board help only the students of Furman University. As to the question of helping both in the matter of board and tuition or tuition only, the Board is left to its own judgment.

2. That the Board be instructed not to discontinue needed help on the first of February, 1912, but that it be authorized to borrow the necessary money to meet its expenses for the balance of the session.

3. That the apportionment for this Board be placed at $4,000.

4. That the Board be instructed to give the Convention of 1912 its judgment as to the wisdom of continuing the policy of taking notes from students who receive help from the Board. There are those who think that this policy should be discontinued or modified, and we feel that the Convention should have the benefit of the Board's long experience of the working of the policy.

In conclusion, your committee would call the Convention's attention to the importance of this Board's work. It needs a new emphasis. This fund is necessary if we are to have an educated ministry. This fact is not open to doubt. More than one hundred years of experience sustains it.

REPORT OF THE AGED MINISTERS' RELIEF BOARD.

The work for the Old Preachers is moving on to something better all the time, even though there are some pastors who seem to feel about this work as the half-way converts at Ephesus expressed themselves about the Holy Ghost—"We did not so much as hear whether the Holy Spirit was given." Possibly it may be necessary for some to linger behind as a sort of rear-guard in all great movements, and we must not censure our brethren who occupy that position in this case. A great deal more is being done than formerly. By and by, all the pastors will see how great a mistake they make when they profess satisfaction with taking one small collection for this work during the whole year. The brethren who take no collection at all will either pass on into the silence of the everlasting, or turn up as beneficiaries of this same Board, and spend the remaining days of life contemplating the follies of their better days, and lamenting the golden opportunities of service which they despised.

The number of our wards still hangs about fifty. It is now fifty-three, with two applicants awaiting investigation. During the year, we have enrolled seven and lost four by death, so that the roll of names is a sort of kaleidoscopic thing, always changing, and yet always the same.

The inside history of the work for the old and poor belongs to the unwritten story of the world. It cannot be written and should not be. The weak and poverty-stricken, the old and laid-aside, do not like to see their sorrows spread out before a gaping world. It is enough to be poor, without having the fact paraded before the eyes of the unsympathizing. The members of the Board who are trying to conduct the work feel that the great task before them now is to give respectability to it—to take away from it the almshouse feature, and to induce the recipients of our benefactions to believe that they are merely receiving a portion of what is justly due them.

REPORT ON THE REPORT OF THE AGED MINISTERS' RELIEF BOARD.

Your committee reports that it appears from the report of the Treasurer of the Board that the churches have contributed to the relief of the aged ministers during the Convention year $6,288.85. That amount represents our appreciation of the work and claims of the veterans, who by reason of age or other infirmities have ceased from their labors. They laid the foundations. They have finished their work. Standing on the foundation which they laid, we are able to reach higher and achieve greater things. Surely and gladly we acknowledge that the vantage ground on which we stand was won for us by them. We have entered into their labors and are sharers of their toils. Have they not a righteous claim to share in ours? Verily, they have. We believe that Bro. Brown and his glorious boys have a love claim and a co-partnership claim upon the churches. We believe in the veterans and the splendid work they did for us, which makes possible the work we are doing today. We would acknowledge the righteousness of their claim. We would acknowledge also Father Brown's noble efforts as deserving of our loving encouragement. The committee would make two recommendations.

1. That the Board increase the gifts to beneficiaries at least three per cent.

2. That the churches be asked to give to this Board during the next Convention year the sum of $9,500.

Respectfully submitted,

R. B. WATSON, for Committee.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF FURMAN UNIVERSITY.

The enrollment by classes for the session of 1911-12 is as follows:

Seniors	23
Juniors	31
Sophomores	48
Freshmen	73

in college classes, with eighty-four in the Fitting School, making 259 in all. There are thirty-five students for the ministry. Classes in mission study are doing excellent work, and the Judson Memorial Baraca class in the Bible School of the First Baptist church, taught by Prof. B. E. Geer, has a membership of 100 students.

The last week in November, Dr. T. Brunson Ray, of Richmond, held special services, speaking three times a day in the Alumni Hall, on the Christian Life. The result has been a genuine revival of religion, in which very nearly every student was reached. There were old fashioned repentance for sin, confessions of faith, struggles with decisions about life work—one strong young man giving himself publicly to the ministry, and another to the foreign field. And by all these the whole student community was profoundly and permanently blessed.

Two new professors—J. H. Jackson and R. N. Daniel—have charge of the English department under the superintendence of Prof. Geer, who himself proposes to give this session a course of lessons on Sidney Lanier. Prof. Jackson comes to us from the graduate school of Harvard University, and Prof. Daniel has a post-graduate degree from the University of Chicago. These gentlemen are approving themselves in every way to faculty and students.

The new headmaster of the Fitting School, Mr. R. C. Burts, is already well-known throughout the State, and the confidence of our people that he is the right man in the right place is sure to grow. Mr. A. B. Carson, the new man in the Fitting School teaching force, is giving general satisfaction.

Beginning with 1912 the University will publish a quarterly bulletin, the April number of which will be the annual catalog.

The James C. Furman Hall of Science will come regularly into use January 3, 1912. Its completion and formal opening will be marked by appropriate exercises. The building is a surprise and delight to all who have gone through it, and its interior furnishings will be of the same grade with those of the best science halls in the country.

Contributions to Current Support since December, 1910, have been received from thirty-four associations. Only the Pee Dee has sent in its full apportionment; but we look to other associations to follow this lead. More churches than ever before have sent in contributions.

The Living Endowment Union has listed $43,000.00. On this amount the 252 members of the Union agree to pay 5 per cent. per annum. Of those whose pledges are due 180 have paid, and some of those who have not paid have made explanation, and we hope to keep the collections up to date. We earnestly commend this method to all our people. From June to December, 1911, contributions to the Current Support and to the Living Endowment Union have amounted to $1,790.46—showing an increase over the receipts for the same period in 1910 of $590.00. From these sources, from December 1st, 1910, to November 31, 1911, the Treasurer has received $3,055.03.

Mr. E. P. Easterling, for over four years, the Financial Agent of the University, has presented his resignation of the position, and the resignation has been accepted. Mr. Easterling's devotion to the institution and its interests is beyond praise. In his work for the Science Hall, the Endowment, the Living Endowment Union and for the Current Support fund, he has written his name deep into the records of the institution. The Board has referred to its Executive Committee the grave and difficult task of finding a worthy successor to this faithful servant of the cause of Christian education in South Carolina.

Your Board has heard with concern a decision of the Board of Ministerial Education to cut down by half the aid rendered to students, and to cut off aid altogether after February 1, unless otherwise instructed by the Convention. That Board feels compelled to this decision by the wholly inadequate contributions from the churches; and we, the Trustees of Furman, would urge upon the Convention a strong rally to the Board of Ministerial Education. These young men must be continued in school. But if so, the churches must take hold afresh of the business of helping them to meet their necessary expenses.

On October 28, 1911, Dr. Wallace Buttrick, Secretary of the General Education Board of New York, wrote the President of the University a letter in which he reported the proposition of his Board to contribute $25,000.00 toward the next $100,000.00 to be added to the General Endowment. The Board of Trustees have accepted the proposition and have set January 1, 1917, as the final date on which the conditions of the grant are to be met. It is worthy of note that our institution was one of only six, out of more than sixty applicants, to be voted grants at the October meeting of the General Education Board.

A tentative statement of B. E. Geer, Treasurer, which he has made to the Trustees pending the preparation of a full report to be made in June and to be printed for general distribution shows a grand total of invested funds, including those invested in non-interest bearing buildings of $221,712.70.

REPORT ON REPORT OF BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF FURMAN UNIVERSITY.

Your committee to whom was committed the report on Furman University report as follows:

We note with pleasure and gratitude the healthy spiritual condition of the institution. We believe that a Christian college should stand for the highest Christian ideals, and it is a matter of thanksgiving that Furman University has been true to this ideal. We believe that the highest culture is Christian culture.

Again, we note with real gratification the fact that the financial condition is such that every one who reads the report and who takes the pains to look into the figures set forth in the statement of the financial side of the institution can readily see the true status of affairs. We believe that the full report of all invested funds, etc., promised by the Board for free distribution in June, will be acceptable to the denomination.

We make the following recommendations:

1. That the Living Endowment and Current Support be kept up. It will greatly help the churches and individuals by keeping them more in sympathy with the institution. Besides, this annual fund is a pressing need to the College.

2. That the institution see to it that no ministerial student is sent away in February. In our judgment the Board of Ministerial Education ought, by instruction of this Convention, to give aid to ministerial students, and that the co-operation of these boards ought to be such as will guarantee continued assistance to worthy young men preparing for the ministry.

3. We note that a successor to Rev. E. P. Easterling has been referred to the Executive Board. It is the feeling of your committee that Furman needs a man in the field as agent. There is much that such a man can do. But we further believe that his services will be worse than useless if he is not a man fitted to the delicate and trying position.

4. Your committee would heartily approve of the time limit set by the Trustees, January 1, 1917, as being full ample to secure the $25,000 gift which has so generously been offered to Furman. But it is well even from this time forth to plan to make sure of it by raising our $75,000.

R. FORD.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF GREENVILLE FEMALE COLLEGE.

The Board of Trustees of the Greenville Female College has approved and adopted the following report of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees and also the following report of the President of the College and ordered the same to be reported to this Convention as the report of the Board. The recommendations therein contained have been approved and adopted by the Board.

To the Honorable Board of Trustees for Greenville Female College:

Your Executive Committee charged with executing the plans for buildings and improvements in buildings for the Greenville Female College respectfully shows:

That your Executive Committee has caused to be erected on the main grounds of the College lying next to the Orr property and in line with the other buildings of the College, a building three stories high exclusive of the basement. This building contains fifty-two rooms including four rooms in the basement. In the basement of this building are two class rooms, one for kindergarten and one for the primary department, and two rooms for trunks.

The first floor above the basement contains the President's apartments and also the College parlors; besides dormitories. The second and third floors are devoted entirely to dormitories. The building as completed is the same, the plan of which was adopted by this Board one year ago, with some modifications, the importance of which developed during the progress of the building. The building including all plumbing and lights and other equipments of like nature costs about forty thousand dollars.

In addition to this the two older buildings between the new building and the auditorium have been entirely renovated, new floors being put in every room and hallway, the floors in the hallways being of hard wood and the other floors being of the best pine material, and in addition your Committee has caused new floors to be put in some of the rooms in the present auditorium building, among which is the Lula Cagle room.

It has so arranged the buildings that the more important class rooms are on the first floor of the old building, no class room being on the second or third floor.

There are lavatories in all the dormitories in the College and the rooms in the old buildings are made as attractive and comfortable as those in the new. And clothes presses in each dormitory. The cost of renovating the old buildings amounts to about twelve thousand dollars.

Your Committee has caused all the class rooms to be furnished and equipped with the most modern and up-to-date furniture and equipment, and has caused all the dormitories to be furnished so as to make them attractive and comfortable.

The Executive offices have been moved to the front rooms on the first floor of the center of the buildings, and hard wood floors have been put in these offices, and they furnished in a most attractive manner.

Your Committee has also caused the servants' buildings to be removed to the back part of the College lot, and had a barn and cow stalls erected on the back part of the College lot. These cow stalls all have cement floors as required by sanitary regulations, and at the present time sixteen milch cows are kept therein. These buildings cost twelve hundred dollars.

Your Executive Committee contemplates beginning the erection of the new Auditorium and music rooms and dining room about the first of next February, and hopes to have the work completed by next June. It may become proper in the course of this work to modify to some extent the plans originally submitted and approved, especially as to the size of the Auditorium.

Your Committee will as soon as the present scholastic year closes change the present auditorium into dormitories as suggested by the original plans submitted and approved.

Your Committee recommends that another building be erected on the main College grounds, and that the DeCamp property be sold. Your Committee recommends that this building be erected just in the rear of the present auditorium and that it be three stories high, and that the first floors be given to class rooms, and that fourteen dormitories be placed on each of the other two floors, making twenty-eight dormitories in all. This with the dormitories to be placed in the present auditorium will enable the College to accommodate about two hundred and seventy boarders. When this work shall have been completed, there will be sufficient room in the College for many years to come, and with this room and such proper equipment as will go with it the College will be second to none in the South, and will be an institution for the education of our girls and young women, to which the Baptist denomination in the State may look with just pride and gratification, such equipment and room in the hands of our zealous and very capable President will be used in such way as to give the largest returns in the Christian education of our girls and young women.

Respectfully,

B. M. SHUMAN, for Committee.

December 5th, 1911.

The President's Report to the Board of Trustees of the Greenville Female College.

As President of the Greenville Female College I would most respectfully submit the following report:

I.

Enrollment.

Collegiate, including specials	335
Sub-collegiate	36
Primary	36
Kindergarten	34
Total	431
Of this number there are
Boarding students	181
Day students	250
Total	431

II.

Finances.

The financial condition of the Greenville Female College is most gratifying and shows that the work of the College is in a prosperous condition.

III.

Faculty and Force.

On account of the resignation of the teacher of Chemistry and Physics three days before the opening of the session, it became necessary to supply her place on short notice. The teacher chosen was not satisfactory and she remained but one month. The place was promptly filled without loss of a single day by an excellent teacher, who is doing superb work. Our faculty is now composed of a most competent and conscientious body of hard working men and women. The housekeeper, the matron, and the lady principal are doing well. All things in our big family go forward with efficiency and without friction.

The music department became so full that it was necessary to add another teacher. We were fortunate in securing Miss Nelson, of Ohio, a most charming woman and a competent and skillful teacher.

IV.

Equipment:

Giving the barest outline of what has been done at the College in the last six months in the way of material equipment would be a long story. In a sentence, it may be stated that when the present plans shall have been completed we shall not be behind any college in the matter of equipment in this section of the country.

The main dormitory building has been remodeled with all modern improvements, while the new dormitory building, it would seem, is a model for convenience and simple elegance. The class rooms leave nothing to be desired. The heating plant, barring a few minor details, is a great success. As for the lighting of the buildings, the only criticism is that it is too well done—the bills run high.

Our modern dairy for sixteen cows is complete in all details and meets every sanitary requirement.

The grounds in the rear of the building are being gradually arranged for all the sports and recreation necessary for the girls.

V.

Health:

There have been no cases of sickness in the College due to local causes. Two students and one teacher have had appendicitis. There was one case of fever at the opening of the session, which had been contracted in the low country. Our well furnished and beautiful infirmary is frequently without a single occupant for days. The addition of a trained nurse to our force has met a long felt need. Her chief work is in keeping the girls well, rather than looking after them when sick. It is not easy to see how a College family the size of ours could get along without the services of a trained nurse.

VI.

Deportment:

The conduct of the students has been exemplary. There has not been one serious case of discipline, and but few demerits for minor breaches of the rules. The policy of the present administration is to put the girls upon their honor, and appeal to them for co-operation with the President in securing good behaviour. It may be too early to state an opinion as to the value of this method, but the President is exceedingly hopeful that this will tend to develop the best there is in the girls.

VII.

Religion:

Almost the entire student body attends Sunday school and church on Sunday morning. The interest taken in the Young Women's Christian Association, the early morning prayer meeting, which is conducted by the girls themselves, and the mission study classes, shows most favorable religious conditions. The attendance at our chapel exercises each day represents the entire student body. The President speaks for ten minutes each day on some practical theme, tending to build up character in the young women. He is greatly pleased with the evidences of good results from these short talks.

VIII.

Recommendations:

The following recommendations are respectfully submitted:

1. That the plan for future improvements, as suggested by the Executive Committee of the Board, should be executed with thoroughness and promptness, so that we may have the buildings ready for occupancy at the opening of the next session.

2. That the Board of Trustees ask the Baptist State Convention now in session to instruct the Board to inaugurate a campaign for raising one hundred thousand dollars to be used in the completion of the material equipment of the College and the retiring of the bonds, that the institution may be free from the burden of debt at as early a date as practicable.

Respectfully submitted,

DAVID M. RAMSAY, President.

REPORT ON REPORT OF TRUSTEES OF GREENVILLE FEMALE COLLEGE.

We your committee, to which was referred the report of Greenville Female College, beg leave to report as follows:

1. We note with peculiar pleasure the present prosperous condition of the College. During the past year very gratifying progress has been made in securing an adequate equipment. The attendance is exceedingly gratifying. The outlook for the future is most hopeful.

2. But great as have been the material developments during the year, gratifying as is the attendance, we regard as the greatest achievement of the year, the securing of Dr. D. M.

Ramsay as the executive head of the College. We believe that the trustees of the College and the Baptists of the entire State are to be congratulated on this achievement. Wise in counsel, cultured of mind, consecrated in heart and life, in the prime of his splendid powers, we believe that he has come to the College for such a time as this. Your committee would recommend that all our people give him their hearty support in all his work in behalf of the College.

3. As to the financial condition of the College, we believe that it is an opportune time for the Baptists of the State to do something for the institution which is worth while. A part of the bonds, authorized by the Convention, has been sold. But while they served in supplying a present need, they constitute an obligation which if unmet can only be a source of embarrassment for the future. There are also other improvements which must be made if we would enable the College to achieve its greatest success. Therefore, as to the request of the trustees that the Convention endorse a campaign for the following year looking to the raising of the sum of $100,000 by popular subscription, your committee is impressed with the advisability of the plan and would recommend its favorable consideration by the Education Commission, if the Convention decides that this is a matter which necessarily comes under the province of said Commission.

Respectfully submitted,

EDW. S. REAVES, Chm.
W. C. ALLEN,
M. W. RANKIN,
T. T. HYDE,
O. J. FRIER.

Resolved, that so much of the resolutions referring to the canvassing for funds be referred to our Education Commission for consideration, and with authority to act.

W. J. LANGSTON.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF ANDERSON COLLEGE.

To the State Convention of the Baptist Denomination in South Carolina:

The Board of Trustees of Anderson College begs leave to submit this its first annual report.

Soon after the adjournment of your last Convention the Board met and effected a formal organization by the selection of H. H. Watkins as President of the Board, and L. J. Bristow as Secretary, and by the selection of an Executive Committee consisting of R. S. Ligon, Chairman; L. J. Bristow, C. S. Sullivan, M. M. Mattison and H. H. Watkins. Subsequently they selected as Treasurer and Dean Prof. John K. Breeden. The Executive Committee was also, by the Board of Trustees, designated as a building committee, and was charged with the duty of selecting plans, awarding contracts, and proceeding with the construction of the College buildings.

The College was chartered by an Act of the General Assembly of the State at its last session.

In January a meeting was held in Anderson, at which time there were presented to the Board four offers of sites for the location of the College. All of these offers were regarded by the Board as generous and attractive. Two of them, in addition to lands sufficient for the location, embraced cash offers of ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00) each. After visiting the various properties offered, the Board unanimously decided to accept an offer from The College Heights Land Company of a donation of thirty-two acres situated on a high elevation in the northeastern part of the city, and on the interurban line of the Greenville, Spartanburg and Anderson Railway Company. This property is regarded as easily worth twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00), and there was submitted to the Executive Committee a bona fide offer of that sum for the property in the event that the College should be located on adjacent property. The site is one of almost unsurpassed natural beauty, located within easy reach of the residents of the city, and its natural drainage and location make it an ideal one as regards health, The gift of this splendid property by the residents of the city demonstrates the interest and good-will of the citizens of Anderson toward the College; and that this feeling prevails throughout the entire city is shown by the generous rivalry exhibited in the other offers made.

The Trustees selected as architects, J. H. Casey, of Anderson, South Carolina, and Shand & LaFaye, of Columbia, South Carolina. The plans adopted by the committee for the building, including heating plant and plumbing call for an expenditure approximating eighty-five thousand dollars ($85,000.00). The buildings are now well under way, and when completed will constitute a strictly modern and up-to-date plant. The Board invites the attention of the Convention to the plans now in the hands of the Chairman of the Executive Committee, which will show that no detail has been neglected in providing for the health and comfort of the students, as well as for the advantageous arrangement of assembly halls, recitation rooms, study halls, etc. The Board calls attention to the fact that the dormitories are only two stories in height, obviating the necessity for much climbing of stairways, and that the rooms are all outside, equally comfortable and similarly furnished, and are so arranged as to have only two pupils to the room, with bathroom and running hot and cold water, toilet and lavatory connecting with each room, thus affording a private bath for the exclusive use of the four students in two rooms. The grounds furnish ample space for healthful outdoor exercise, the land in the rear of the College buildings being especially favorable for athletic sports, both in their extent and in the absolute seclusion and privacy which they afford.

The buildings are now well under way, and we expect their completion, according to contract, several months before the opening of the College next fall.

Several ladies' auxiliary organizations have been formed in Anderson, and these are working enthusiastically for the equipment of rooms, the beautifying of the grounds, the founding of scholarships, and the like.

In conclusion, permit us to say a word as to the ideals which the Board have in mind for the work of this College, and to beg your hearty co-operation in the accomplishment of our aims. When last year the city of Anderson sent a large delegation of its representative business and professional men to offer you this College, the Convention decided that conditions warranted the acceptance of the offer. It is believed that a great work will be accomplished here for education, and it is expected that the College shall fix its ideals to meet the demands, not only of the present prosperous and progressive times, but of the future which will inevitably call for broader culture, and character and consecration commensurate therewith. It will be the purpose of the Trustees of Anderson College to provide the highest intellectual training while fostering the graces peculiar to the sex. Believing in such training as shall not only stimulate the mind, broaden the horizon and quicken the moral and spiritual sense, but which shall also prepare for more efficient service in woman's distinctive field of endeavor, it has been decided to offer courses in domestic science in addition to the usual branches. The ideal of the College is to train young women for the complex duties of our generation, emphasizing the distinctive office of womanhood. We wish especially that our teachers shall combine scholarship, sociability, efficiency and spirituality. The prime need of the day is to relate the education of women to their peculiar office in life. The aim of a woman's college should be to make womanly women, to avoid the purely masculine and to cultivate the essentially feminine. This would not require any lowering of the intellectual standard; on the contrary, it calls for the highest development of the mind. It is a fact that calls for our most serious consideration that for several decades the education of the young has been increasingly committed to women teachers. Therefore, upon their intellectual equipment and force of character depends, in very great measure, the education, the moral, and the spiritual life of the boys and girls of the future.

To teach the truth, to broaden the sympathy, to cultivate the mind, to inculcate right principles, to quicken the spiritual life, to prepare for the office of womanhood—this is the obligation under which a high-grade college is conducted, and it is the aim of Anderson College.

The doors of the institution will open for its first session in September, 1912, and the patronage of the brethren of the State at large is invited.

Respectfully submitted,

H. H. WATKINS, For the Board.

REPORT ON REPORT OF TRUSTEES OF ANDERSON COLLEGE.

Your committee on the report of the trustees of the Anderson College for women have very carefully examined the brief outlining the work which has been done since the last meeting of this Convention. We are greatly impressed with the plans and high ideals herein set forth. Not only have the trustees secured plans for a building thorough in all its appointments, but complete in the ideals for the proper development of our girls.

This splendid report should be received by this Convention with profound gratitude to God and an expression of our high appreciation of this new born blessing.

Let us give to this institution our prayers and our best endeavor to bring to a happy realization this magnificent projection of a high grade school for our Baptist young women.

Respectfully submitted,

GRAVES L. KNIGHT,

REPORT OF EDUCATION COMMISSION.

Your Commission would bring to the consideration of the Convention the question of establishing and sustaining Baptist academies in various parts of the State. We feel that the time has come for the Convention in this way to broaden its educational policy.

The question will be asked: Can we not look to the State to satisfactorily do all our high school or academical work? In answering this let us say first of all that we are in perfect sympathy with our State educational system and rejoice in the very successful work that is now being done to improve our high schools. These high schools are to do a work for Baptists as well as others; and a work we can not as a denomination fully do. The denomination can not possibly educate all of our own people. Practically all of the primary work of education must be done by the common schools, and almost all of the academical work for our children must be done by the high schools of the State. These facts we fully recognize. And these facts give Baptists a very profound interest in the State educational system. We should have as great influence over this system and in it as we legitimately can have, and get from it a due proportion of its fruits.

So, then, when we suggest the wisdom of establishing denominational academies this suggestion does not proceed from any latent antagonism to our State system of high schools. But it does proceed from the conviction that State education at best cannot meet fully our denominational demands. A religious body cannot safely look to the State to do all of its educational work. A denomination must educate its leaders, if it hopes for a real future. This we all recognize so far as the collegiate part of education is concerned. We believe that we should recognize it also so far as academies are concerned. Denominational education should commence further back than the colleges; it should include a much greater number than the college students. It is hardly possible for it to commence as far back as the common schools and there is no special need that it should. But it is not only possible but practicable for it to begin with the academies, and here there is need. Denominational academies are good plant beds for denominational colleges, and the day will doubtless come when these colleges will feel the great need for such plant beds.

But we believe that an academy ought to be more than a preparatory school for college. Only a small part of its students can go to college. All of them will go back into life, into our churches and Sunday schools and communities, and they should go back ready for all Christian work, and for the problems of Christ's kingdom.

We need academies as sources for denominational supply. It is a fact that our denominational colleges are among our very best sources for the supply of ministers, missionaries, deacons, Sunday school superintendents, Sunday school teachers and leaders. They are this because of the denominational religious work that is done in them. Now what we claim is that this denominational religious work should begin back in the academies. It would thus reach hundreds who do not go to college. It would inspire a greater number to go. It would fit those who go for the highest religious benefits of college life.

But let no one suppose that in dwelling thus on the religious side of academical work we are thinking of institutions where nothing but religious work will be done. Such institutions, if such could exist, would not be religious at all. We have in mind real academies the equal of the best in the State.

Of course our greatest difficulties will be the practical difficulties which we will meet in the establishment and maintenance of these schools, and in their correlation. But let us not forget that we already have three. These do not, it is true, belong to the Convention, but to associations; but they are Baptist academies and are doing a good work. All of these face today great needs, and are bearing burdens which the whole denomination in the State should help them bear. These three are all in the northern part of the State. Why should our academical efforts be confined to one section of South Carolina? Your Commission believes that it would be a wise thing for this Convention to take steps looking to the help of the associational academies that we already have and to the possible establishment of others in other parts of the State. And to this end we recommend that the Commission be authorized to confer with the trustees of the three associational academies that we now have with a view of bringing them into a closer relation to the Convention and Furman University; and also to confer with the trustees of Furman University with a view to establishing and maintaining a few other academies in other portions of the State. We trust that it is possible to establish a Furman system of schools in South Carolina whose support shall rest on the whole denomination in the State. This would be an educational task worthy of a great people.

REPORT ON WOMAN'S WORK.

In all Christian work woman has ever been a potent factor. The New Testament has much to say of her fidelity, devotion and good works. As Jesus went through cities and villages bringing the good tidings of the kingdom, and with him the twelve, certain women who had been healed ministered unto them of their substance. Mary came with her alabaster box, breaking it and filling the room with its sweet perfume, and while some were ready to criticise, Jesus spoke words of highest praise—She hath wrought a good work, and wheresoever this gospel is preached this shall be spoken of for a memorial of her. On the resurrection morn she was the first to whom the Lord appeared and made himself known, and the first to bear the glad news to the disheartened disciples. Paul in writing to the churches he had established could not forget the women who had been among the most willing helpers. "Help those women who labored with me in the gospel." As the second coming of our Lord draws near, we find him bringing out fresh energies, using new means and putting into activity powers that have lain dormant, among the others, this great feature of modern Christianity, bringing woman into her proper sphere. No one should be more interested in the evangelization of the world, for all that she has and enjoys, she owes to her Lord and his teachings. As we study history it seems that she has been more sensitive to the need, more responsive to the call and more obedient to the command. Her zeal and devotion has been an inspiration to many.

In our report we have to do with their organized efforts for the evangelization of the world. At first there may have been a great deal of prejudice against woman's mission societies as a separate organization, but it has lived down that prejudice, and today every thoroughly organized church has a woman's mission society, and there is no organization in more hearty sympathy with all the work of the church. Not more than fifty years ago did woman's missions begin its true unfolding, and today "The women that publish the tidings are a great host." The world is beginning to learn womanhood's best mission, unselfish tenderness and charity. When first they began to organize it was to work in the interest of Foreign Missions, now they are working for all the interests fostered by the Baptist State Convention.

It is the desire of the Union that there be some form of contributions in the minutes of the associations by which all money raised might be reported as by the church and of the stated amounts so much by the W. M. U., thus avoiding the appearance of their being a separate body. As an aid to keeping more closely in touch with pastor and laymen, a resolution was passed that the W. M. U. work be reported regularly through the church conference. While they hold separate meetings, there is no desire to separate from the churches, but that they may the more effectively accomplish their part of the church work. The wisdom of this separate organization is seen with each annual gathering when the reports are considered. There has been a steady growth each year.

The recent meeting held with the Anderson church is the best in the history of the Union. Instead of $7,000.00 asked for State Missions, they gave $8,427.72. For all purposes they gave $42,157.91, being an advance of $5,421.47 over the year before. The recommendations of the Executive Board were adopted. For 1912 their aim will be $17,600 for Foreign Missions; $12,500 for Home Missions; $7,000 for State Missions; $1,000 for Training School; $210 for Current Expense Fund; $160 for Margaret Home; $200 for Sunday School Board. They are encouraging systematic giving. They voted to adopt the "tithing band" plan, and they call upon their sisters to see that there is in every society a band of women who will come up to the Lord's plan. There are many who are following this plan and the number is increasing. If God's people would give what is the Lord's, in the Lord's way, we would soon possess the land, and what joy and peace would fill the heart, for he has said, "Bring ye the whole tithe into the storehouse that there may be food in my house and prove me now herewith saith Jehovah." Each society is asked to set the standard of excellence, recommended by the Southern Union, as its aim, and strenuous efforts are being made by the societies to reach the List of Honor. The associational meetings, missionary institutes, Young Women's Auxiliary, Young Peoples' Societies, Personal Service, Mission Study Classes, Enlistment month, Weeks of Prayer can but result in the deepening of the spiritual life of the individual and tell for the spread of the gospel at home and abroad. A very important recommendation adopted at Anderson was that of electing a new officer, a College Correspondent, who shall keep in touch with the young women in our schools. This new work will doubtless be far reaching in its influence.

South Carolina leads all the states of the Southern Union in special gifts, the amounts being $5,948.79 for Christmas Offering; $6,523.43 for special Home Mission Offering, and $4,066-90 for State Missions. These are the Weeks of Prayer for the Boards, and tell for the work throughout the year upon the individual life, the home life and church life.

At the recent Convention it was decided to move the headquarters of the Union from Spartanburg to Columbia. These headquarters will be in the new Sunday School Building of the First Baptist church, now in process of erection, and your Committee think the advantages will more than compensate for any additional cost that may accompany the change.

We have only words of commendation for our sisters in their work. Her works praise her! Let the pastors, the churches, and this Convention give that support the work demands, for in helping them, we are helping to bring in that glad day when it can be said, "The kingdom of this world is become the kingdom of our Lord and his Christ."

REPORT ON FOREIGN MISSIONS.

We believe the time has come when facts and not mere exhortations make the strongest appeal to our people. Facts are "the fingers of God" pointing us to our greatest opportunities. Let us, therefore, lay emphasis on a few great outstanding facts concerning our foreign missionary work.

The Bible tells us: "All have sinned and come short of the glory of God;" "The wages of sin is death," and "Death passed upon all men for that all have sinned." That faith in Christ is the only means of salvation for any man, "for there is none other name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved." But how can the heathen "believe in him of whom they have not heard, and how shall they hear without a preacher, and how shall they preach except they be sent?"

The Word of God lays upon us in unmistakable terms the great work of evangelizing the world. "Go ye therefore and teach all nations" "That repentance and remission of sins should be preached among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem." Not to heed this insistent call of the Bible is to be unfaithful to God and lacking in love towards our fellow men perishing in darkness and in sin. "God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in him should not perish but have everlasting life." If we love God we will also love those, even unto the uttermost ends of the earth, for whom he gave his Son to die.

There are inspiring facts concerning the work already done to give us hope and encouragement. Last year, under instructions from the Convention, the Board laid out its work on a basis of $600,000 and came to the close of the year with a debt of nearly $90,000. For some reason, the churches failed to make the advance for which the Convention hoped and for which the Board planned. But this was the only discouraging feature of the year's work.

Thirty new missionaries were sent out during the year. There are now 273 missionaries and 531 native helpers, making a total of 804 workers. Among these are fifteen medical missionaries and five trained nurses, working in seven hospitals and twelve dispensaries, who treated during last year 40,716 patients and led many to Christ.

Editor of The Baptist Courier from 1891 to 1911.

The report shows 297 churches and 605 out-stations with a membership of 21,343. We have 233 houses of worship, and 372 Sunday schools, with 13,226 scholars. There are 175 day schools, with 4,068 pupils; eleven boys' boarding schools with 634 students; eighteen girls' boarding schools with 958 students, and two colleges with 118 students. Special attention is called to the fact that there are seven women's training schools, with 140 students, and nine theological training schools with 212 students. The four mission printing presses are sending out Bibles and millions of pages of religious literature. Our missions are in China, Africa, Japan, Mexico, Italy, Brazil and Argentina. The reports coming from all the fields are most encouraging and the outlook is exceedingly hopeful.

It is a fact which should shame us and stir us up to greater efforts that Southern Baptists are on the average the smallest givers of all the large evangelical denominations, so far as foreign mission work is concerned. The reason for this low average is partly because so many people give nothing. Almost half the churches in the territory of the Southern Baptist Convention gave absolutely nothing. Of these non-contributing churches about 275 are in South Carolina. It is also sadly true that a large portion of the members of even our best churches do not contribute. Next to Maryland and Virginia, South Carolina, of all the states, leads in the average gift to foreign missions. Her average, per member, last year was thirty-three cents. If South Carolina reaches her apportionment of $52,000 this year, her average will be about forty cents per member—almost equal to the average of Virginia last year. Virginia is the only other state that can show so large a proportion of churches that make contributions. With her large number of intelligent Baptists, South Carolina can easily make a much better showing. We must press the work in every church. Let us resolve that this year we will set a pace which will stir all our sister states to greater efforts.

It is a fact as clear as the noon-day sun that Southern Baptists have a large ability for the work of foreign missions. We have two-thirds of the numerical strength of the Baptists in America, and two-thirds of the annual increase in ministers of the gospel among Baptists. We are increasing in wealth every year. We could easily give to foreign missions annually one dollar per member on an average, thus increasing our contributions more than four fold, reaching the large sum of $2,000,000. If our people would follow the spiritual plan of giving at least one-tenth of their income to the support and spread of the gospel, we could soon multiply our contributions to foreign missions many fold.

Another tremendous fact is that the day of opportunity is upon us. There never has been such a time for foreign mission work. The nations are open to the gospel. Last year 3,618 conversions were reported on the fields and the people are eager to learn.

In the early part of the last century Napoleon Boneparte was urged to invade China. He said, "China is a sleeping giant, and you dare not awaken him for when he is aroused he will change the map of the world." China is awakening today. The giant could not be kept asleep. That mighty nation with its 400,000,000 souls is being aroused to a marvelous degree. We need to press upon them the gospel of him who is the light of the world, while they are in the plastic state, and are ready to be moulded into a mighty Christian empire. What is true of China is true of all the great heathen empires.

It is also a truth that these opportunities will not last. What we do, we must do quickly. How can we stand before the judgment bar of God if we fail to meet the glorious opportunities of this day?

It is a distressing fact that there are a great many needs in our foreign mission work which cannot be supplied for lack of means. On every field, we need more men and women to do the work. The Foreign Mission Board could send out at once many more new missionaries, and then not fill all the places where reinforcements are needed. Besides this, many strong men are needed to go out into the great new fields which are open before us. Already work in Manchuria where the harvest is dead ripe, has been opened, and first-class men are needed to lay the foundation. There are great sections in South America which could be immediately evangelized if a sufficient force could be put in the field. The calls for help in the great fields of Europe are insistent. Other great doors are open before us. Where shall the Board get the men and the means to enter these fields?

It is also a fact that in addition to the men that are needed, there is a great necessity for increasing the facilities for the work. There is sore need of missionary residences, chapels, school buildings, and hospital buildings, on our foreign fields. It would take many hundreds of thousands of dollars to supply this need. The cause is suffering because of the lack of these buildings. It is not right to ask our noble missionaries to make the great sacrifice of going to these far-off lands and then allow their work to be crippled and their health and lives to be endangered by living and working in unsanitary surroundings. We must give them homes and comfortable and attractive buildings in which to work.

Let us thank God for his wonderful blessings upon what we have already done. Let us determine to follow the call of the Convention and raise our share of the $600,000, which will be needed this year to maintain the work and pay off the indebtedness on the Board. Yea, let us do more than that, in order that some advance may be made this year. The Board has instituted a plan by which our churches can signify at once what they will attempt to do this Convention year. The entire amount of the $600,000 has been divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, and the Board is calling upon all our churches to subscribe the number of shares or parts of shares which each church will try to raise at the proper time, and to let the Board know as soon as possible so that they can lay out the work with assurance. Let the pastors and deacons of all our churches take up this question immediately, decide upon the largest possible amount that can be attempted for foreign missions, put it before the church for approval, and then notify the Board. This will be of immense help, both to the churches and to the Foreign Mission Board.

Let us put the Foreign Mission Journal into the hands of every member of our churches. Let us call upon the Board for the necessary literature, and sow down every community with tracts and pamphlets which will give the people information. Let us co-operate with the Educational Department of the Board, and organize mission study classes in our churches. Let us give our people the facts and they will give to the Board both the men and the money necessary to meet this golden day of opportunity.

REPORT ON HOME MISSIONS.

Dr. McAfee has well said, "Our missionary program is the capture for righteousness and God of every force and process of civilization, economic, industrial, commercial, political, or other. It is nothing short of setting up the kingdom of heaven upon earth." And Thompson has said, "Home Missions is the philosophy of making a real Christian civilization in America." The enthronement of Christ in the hearts of men and in every sphere of life in our land is the stupenduous task of Home Missions. The Lord laid this task upon the hearts of his people when he taught them to pray, "Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as in heaven." The task of Southern Baptists, through the Home Mission Board, in co-operation with other agencies in all the states, is to Christianize all the people of the South. The need for Home Missions in the South was never so great and so difficult as now. Out of a population of 92,000,000 in the United States only about 20,000,000 are members of Evangelical churches. The South has her full share of the millions without Christ. There are 12,000,000 Catholics, with their idolatrous dogmas and a faith foreign to the genius of free institutions, increasing, alert, aggressive. Their influence is far more potent than we are ready to admit. Ten pages in a recent issue of the notable "Review of Reviews" was given to a discussion of Catholicism.

Mr. R. H. Edmonds says: "The most critical stage in the South's existence has been reached." It is the great crisis of prosperity which is upon Christianity in the South today—the crisis of material wealth and its consecration. Shall Christ or Mammon rule? Recent investigation in a village and rural community revealed the expenditure by the Christians of that community of more for automobiles than the entire value of school and church property and their full support for five years. With this increasing prosperity comes all the social problems of wealth and poverty in conflict.

The Home Mission Board conducts many departments of activity for the Christianizing of the South. It has about forty-five workers among the foreigners, twenty-eight mountain schools with 127 teachers and 4,500 students, eighteen trained evangelists who last year baptized about 3,000 converts, thirty-five Negro missionary evangelists working effectively among Southern Negroes, thirty-four missionaries who supply fifty-six churches and mission stations in Cuba, five missionaries and four helpers doing successful work in the Canal Zone, a church building department which aided in building 289 churches last year, and twenty missionaries among the Indians. Besides this the Home Board co-operates in many states in maintaining about 1,100 missionary pastors.

The enlargement of Home Mission resources is imperative. Much of the great work of Christianizing the South must be done through the Home Mission Board. It is the only agency that comes in contact with all the missionary operations of the South and the only agency capable of leading a great missionary movement throughout the South. To stress the need for enlargement only a few departments of the work need to be mentioned.

The new heathen invasion of the South is a strong call to us by darkest heathenism even at our doors. The South has a foreign population of 3,000,000 people, increased yearly by 50,000 alien immigrants. These are mainly in Baltimore, Norfolk, Tampa, Birmingham, Memphis, St. Louis, and New Orleans, and in Texas, Louisiana, Oklahoma and Missouri. There are about 400,000 French in Louisiana among whom we have no missionary. Great colonies have recently settled in Mississippi, Florida, Georgia and North Carolina. Foreigners will unquestionably in greater numbers turn to the South's greater opportunity in the coming years. They must be Christianized. This is true, if they remain with us. But the ebb and flow of the immigration tide stresses this still more. For the nine months of this year to September 30 sixty-six per cent. of the total of foreigners who entered this land returned to their foreign homes. This is a great increase over former years. What account do they give of the Christianity of our land?

An adequate home base for the conquest of the world is possible through the development of our backward churches. No seer can estimate the potential resources of the hosts of Baptists in the country churches of the South. We find here no taint of doctrinal teaching, no questioning of scriptural authority, but awful inactivity and neglect of his missionary commands. Eleven thousand churches that give nothing for missions! And many that do give are only touched very slightly in spots with missionary zeal. With our resources only partly conserved and developed we would be able without strain to raise a million next year for Home Missions. This issue must be met and solved. A large part of the task is with the Home Mission Board.

And our cities! Here is satan's seat. People from the ends of the earth meet in our cities. All the forces of evil here hide and reign. The tide of population has still been toward the cities during the past ten years, and perhaps will increase more rapidly in the future. Here center all our serious social problems and all the dangers to our institutions. Shall Christianity prevail in the modern city? This must be answered by the Lord's people in their Home Mission task.

For Home Missions Southern Baptists have undertaken to raise $400,000 during the year 1911-1912. To do this every church ought to be enlisted in systematic effort. The gifts must be increased. South Carolina is abundantly able to bear her share in the joyful task. We specially commend the study of Home Missions by our pastors and churches. "Missions Striking Home" and "World Missions from Home Base," by Joseph McAfee, ought to be read and studied by thousands in our churches. "The Home Mission Tariff," soon to be issued by the Home Board, will give a new and full insight into the Home Mission task. "The Home Field," informing and interesting, should have a greatly increased circulation in all our churches.

We urge upon our pastors and churches that prayer be made for Home Missions, that the Lord may reveal unto his people their great opportunity and enable them to meet it.

REPORT OF THE CONVENTION'S COMMITTEE ON BAPTIST LAYMEN'S MISSIONARY MOVEMENT.

As instructed by the Convention of last year, your committee called a meeting in January in Columbia for the purpose of perfecting the plans of the work in the State. One of the results of the meeting was the provision for a State secretary, who devotes his entire time to the work. In this advanced step, South Carolina Baptists are pioneers, and if our plan succeed, it will doubtless be adopted by other states.

Brother W. E. Wilkins, who for years has shown great interest in the movement, was chosen for this position, and since accepting it in May has been working zealously. The first three months of his work were given to studying our missionary situation and selecting suitable literature for the work; August and September were given almost exclusively to assisting in the State Mission campaign.

There are now over 150 laymen in the State and associational committees, and a number of them are engaged in active, efficient campaigns in their associations.

We recommend: 1. That the Convention's committee of nine be increased to fifteen members, and that the fifteen be empowered to add to its number six members selected from the chairmen of the associational committees. The advantages of thus closely connecting the State Convention's committee with the associational committees is apparent.

2. That provision be made whereby the committee's publicity department can be so enlarged that the press of the State, both city and county, can be frequently supplied with missionary material. From the investigations made along this line, we find that an unoccupied field and one which promises far-reaching results opens here.

3. The committee for the new year be instructed to join with the State Sunday School Department and Woman's Missionary Union of the State in urging systematic mission study in our Sunday school classes. It is from this source that we are to get our supply of missionaries, and it is there that the material for the Laymen's Movement of the future is now grouped.

4. We recommend, also that the work be pushed even more vigorously along the lines recommended by the Southern Baptist Convention and already begun in our State. These plans have been approved by the experience of our most active and most successful churches, and if encouraged and given time, will yield a glorious harvest.

We feel sure that the work done by the laymen's committees in the recent State Mission campaign is but the beginning of what these men will do when they are thoroughly awakened to their responsibility and when they experience more of the joys of personal service and real sacrifice. Many of the men in our churches are capable of being and doing and giving what a few are now being and doing and giving.

We ask the privilege of recording:

(1) Our appreciation of the hearty welcome and continued co-operation given to our State secretary by pastors, churches and associations all over the State;

(2) To the editors of The Baptist Courier, both for their frequent complimentary references to our work and for the frequent use of their columns; and

(3) To generous individuals who are supporting the work by personal contributions.

(Signed) C. E. ROBINSON, Chairman,
Laymen's Committee of Baptist State Convention.

REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE STATE B. Y. P. U.

We are glad to submit report of great progress in B. Y. P. U. work among our churches during the past year. About thirty new unions have been organized since the last Convention; and, for the most part, they give evidence of a healthy, aggressive spirit among our Baptist young people, and of an attitude of our churches toward them.

Mission studies and Christian Culture courses are growing in favor with them.

The work of the Junior B. Y. P. U. is becoming more popular and more promising.

The standard of merits for the State Banner is proving itself effective as a means of promoting the higher purposes and work for which the Unions exist.

We recommend that the standard of excellence be made the model and goal for the Unions, and that the Bible Readers' Courses be pursued with the definite purpose of completing them so as to entitle the members to the certificates issued by the Sunday School Board.

The B. Y. P. U. has demonstrated its value as the training service of our churches, and is a worthy contemporary with the Sunday school. We therefore urge the pastors and Sunday school officers to encourage the organization of the young people in their churches for the purpose of training themselves in Christian service both along educational and practical lines.

REPORT OF HISTORICAL COMMITTEE.

The Historical Committee beg leave to submit the following report:

During the past year your committee has carefully considered the writing of the history of the Baptists of our State, with reference to an organization to carry forward the work, as well as the selection of a suitable historian.

Already the committee has been able to obtain the location of considerable data. The information referred to is in the hands of the chairman of the committee. But this is but an index to what might be obtained and we earnestly urge upon the brotherhood to inform those in charge of the work as to where data may be obtained and also to furnish them the data when possible.

The task of writing the history of the Baptists of our State is a great and long one, and will require patience. But it should be done. We have too long neglected our history, leaving it often to others who are either hostile or indifferent. Even a casual glance over the field will convince any one that the Baptists of this State have a long, a great and an honorable history. This body will shortly celebrate its centennial and it is eminently fitting that a history of this organization be written for the occasion.

Therefore, your committee would recommend that a "Historical Commission," consisting of seven members, be appointed. The Convention shall elect six, and these six shall elect the State Historian, who shall be the seventh member of the Commission, and its secretary. The Commission shall be authorized to collect funds necessary for the work committed to it, and expend them as in its judgment seems wisest.

We further recommend that the historian thus elected be instructed to prepare for the centennial celebration a history of our State Convention. The work thus begun can be carried forward until a history of the Baptists of the State of South Carolina is completed.

Respectfully Submitted,
J. H. THAYER,
LOUIS BRISTOW,
I. W. WINGO,
H. T. COOK,
R. FORD.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RELIGIOUS LITERATURE.

This is the day of literature—religious, irreligious and non-religious. To furnish our people with a literature lofty in tone, moral in its teachings, and spiritual in its effects is a task worthy of a great people. This is a reading age, and care is necessary in the selection of newspapers, magazines, books and other literature which find their way into our homes.

A man to be intelligent should be informed, and a member of a Baptist church who hopes to be informed respecting the activities of his denomination will find it necessary to procure and regularly read the denominational publications of the State and the general agencies of the Southern Baptist Convention. Besides this, the printing presses daily are issuing thousands of volumes worthy of a place in the library of every man.

Your committee begs to make the following recommendations:

First. That every child in the Sunday school be furnished with a Bible of its own, which should be brought by the pupil to the school every Sunday.

Second. That a library be established in every school whose purpose it shall be to furnish the pupils with appropriate books to be read during the character-formative period of their lives.

Third. That a committee on religious literature be appointed in every church whose duty it shall be to endeavor to secure as subscribers to The Baptist Courier, The Home Field, and The Foreign Mission Journal a member of every household in the congregation.

Fourth. That this Convention shall appoint annually a committee on publicity whose duty it shall be to provide a sufficient corps of competent reporters who shall offer to the secular press full and accurate accounts of the proceedings of this Convention and the activities of the denomination in this State. It is further recommended that this committee shall be appointed at each annual session of the Convention to serve until the close of the next succeeding annual session.

Respectfully submitted,
LOUIS BRISTOW, for Committee.

REPORT ON OBITUARIES.

Andrew Jackson Spears Thomas fell on sleep at his home in Greenville, April 1st, 1911, after weeks of lingering sickness. He had finished his course in faithfulness and was ready for the crown.

Bro. Thomas was born near Bennettsville, S. C., December 14, 1852. He was a son of Rev. J. A. W. Thomas who through a long life was one of the most widely known and best loved Baptist ministers in the State. It was the great good fortune of the son to have the example and to enjoy the influence of such parents as were his. A Christian home therefore, was the first of the forces that prepared him for his life and his work. His college training was received at Furman University, which institution he entered in 1872. Then he prepared himself for the gospel ministry through four years spent at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, attaining to full graduation in 1879. From this date until that upon which he assumed the duties of the editorial life in 1891 he held three pastorates—at Batesburg, at the old First church, Charleston, and at Orangeburg. All these were successful and useful pastorates. But his Lord and his brethren needed him for a wider field of service, and so in 1891 he became part owner and editor of The Baptist Courier, as successor to Col. J. A. Hoyt. Side by side in appreciative and loving fellowship for nearly twenty years, Dr. Thomas and the lamented W. W. Keys faithfully labored to provide a paper worthy of our people and of our Baptist cause. We all know how well they succeeded, and are proud of the paper they left to their successors when they were called to rest from their labors. As an editor Dr. Thomas was an advocate and a wise supporter of all our denominational enterprises. He labored for the things that make for true progress. And the spirit of all that he wrote showed that he had well learned the apostolic injunction, "Let your moderation be known unto all men."

Dr. Thomas was widely used and honored by the denomination. He received the degree of D. D. from Columbian University. He rendered long service on the boards of State Missions and of Benedict College, also represented the boards of the Southern Convention as vice president for South Carolina. He was regarded as one of the most valuable of the trustees of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, to which institution he gave much devoted service. One of the last acts of his life when he was scarcely able to leave his home, was the marking of the old Seminary location in Greenville. From 1885 to 1893 he was secretary of this Convention and for two years served with ability as our president, in 1909 and 1910.

Dr. Thomas loved truth and righteousness, and all the interests of Christ's kingdom. A broad minded and patriotic citizen he stood for and worked for temperance and civic righteousness among the people. But his heart went out to the largest things for the kingdom of God, and this love was given expression in his devotion to the great purposes and undertakings of our State Convention and of the Southern Convention.

The love and esteem in which our brother was held by the Baptists throughout the State, and by those who knew him in other States, was shown in the large number of messages received by his family and at the office of The Baptist Courier expressing regret and sympathy. The high regard in which he was held in the community where he had lived so many years was clearly seen in the attendance of a great throng of people at his funeral.

Dr. Thomas was a great home-lover, a devoted husband and father. The dear ones of his home circle, his wife, two daughters and a son, greatly miss him who was a true and noble man in all the relations of life.

Rev. Lewis H. Shuck died at Cheraw, S. C., July 8th, 1911.

The following facts in the life of this well-loved and lovable minister of the gospel are gathered from an article in the Baptist Courier of August 3, 1911, by Dr. R. W. Sanders, a one-time pupil and an appreciative friend of the deceased:

Dr. Shuck was a son of Rev. J. Lewis Shuck, who with his wife were the first American Baptist missionaries in China. He was born in Singapore, August 3, 1836. At an early age he became an M. A. graduate of Wake Forest College. He began preaching at the age of twenty, and for fifty-five years labored unceasingly and faithfully as a minister of the gospel. A good scholar and an efficient instructor much of his time was devoted to teaching, but his greatest work was done in preaching the gospel. Dr. Shuck was an able and successful preacher, and a devoted and loving pastor. During his long ministry he was pastor of several prominent churches. Some of his pastorates were Madison, N. C., Blackville and First church, Charleston, S. C., First church, Paducah, Ky., Fayette, Mo., and churches near Charlottesville, Va. In early life he became a professor at Oxford, N. C., later he taught in the town of Barnwell, S. C., and in 1896 he was chosen president of the Albemarle Female Instiute, Charlottesville, Va.

Dr. Shuck's last postorate, one of several years, was with the church at Cheraw, where he had the esteem and love of his church and of the community.

He was singularly pure and guileless and spent a quiet, humble life in useful service. The local paper gave at his death this beautiful tribute: "Dr. Shuck was loved by every one. There was a daily beauty about his life which won every heart. But he is gone! Another shining mark has been removed. In such a death there is no cause for grief. His life work was done and well done. Wearied with life's duties and cares, weary with suffering and waiting, he lay down to rest. Few of us will live as long or as well, and fewer yet will the angel of death greet with such a loving touch."

Frank Millard Satterwhite passed from the toils and pains of earth to his heavenly reward in Sumter, S. C., November 2nd, 1911.

Bro. Satterwhite was born in Goochland County, Va., July 25, 1855. He was a student at Richmond College, and then attended the Seminary at Louisville. The writer was a fellow student with this fine young man, and knew the high regard in which he was held in those two schools. He was ordained at Winn's church, Hanover County, Va., October, 1878, and was pastor of this and other Virginia churches during his college and seminary years. After leaving the Seminary in 1884 his first pastorate was in the town of Marion, this State, where for three or four years he did a faithful and enduring work. Then after two years spent with the Edenton church, N. C., he became pastor of churches in the Welsh Neck Association. Here our brother labored for several years. This pastorate was followed by some years given to the church at Blenheim, and to neighboring churches. About eleven years ago he became pastor of the newly organized Bartlett Street church of Sumter. To this work he gave his richest years and ripest experience.

Bro. Satterwhite entered upon his last pastorate, that with the church at Yorkville, S. C., about the first of this year. But he was not long permitted to carry on this work in his usual strength and joy. After struggling for months against encroaching disease, and in the effort to meet the demands of the field, the condition of his health forced him to ask the church to accept his resignation as pastor. This was done on the last Sunday of October. Three days later he entered upon that "rest which remaineth for the people of God."

Such men as Bro. Satterwhite, men of sterling worth and of unflinching devotion to Christ and his kingdom, have been the prime human cause of the prosperity of our Baptist zion in South Carolina. We are grieved when these strong lives and lovely spirits take their flight. We sadly miss their loyal helpfulness and loving fellowship. But we trust their Lord and ours, and know that in their removal as in all things, he doeth well.

James Melvin Shell died in Laurens, March 16, 1911. He was born October 20, 1852; was married to Emma Switzer, January 15, 1874. He was not ordained to the gospel ministry until late in life, September 24, 1905. Bro. Shell was no great preacher, but no one knows the good he did in a quiet way. He knew and loved his Lord, and delighted to tell of him and his grace. He was especially successful in his pastoral work; knew how to visit, and was gifted in prayer. He had a cheerful, genial spirit, and met people with a smile. He also had convictions and courage on all questions of righteousness, and was ready to take a stand, in any moral issue. A truer man than J. M. Shell it would be hard to find.

Harrison Fowler died at Clinton, S. C., October 15, 1911. Bro. Fowler was born October 21, 1841. He was twice married and left several worthy and useful children. He served his country in the Confederate Army. Soon after the war he began his ministry, which lasted for more than forty years. He was pastor of some of the best churches in Newberry and Laurens counties. Bro. Fowler was very quiet and retiring in his disposition. He shrank from preaching as few men do, but when this timidity was overcome, he was a very fine preacher, one of the greatest of his day. His preaching was clear and forceful, warm and spiritual. He was a thinker of ability, and made very careful preparation for all his work. He spent a useful life, and wherever known he was respected, honored and loved.

Rev. D. Littleton was born August 18th, 1837, died at Salem, Oconee County, May 17, 1911. The Association has this tribute: "In the death of Rev. Daniel Littleton, Salem church and the entire Association has suffered a great loss. Bro. Littleton was one of our oldest ministers and has helped to lay the foundation upon which we are building today. Let us submit to the will of God who does all things well. While we love him with all our hearts, our loss is heaven's gain." He served for many years as pastor in Oconee and Pickens counties several churches, riding hundreds of miles, and received no salary."

Rev. J. B. Hunnicutt, one of the oldest and most venerable ministers of the State, died in Oconee county November 3, 1911. His life and work had been spent in that county, where he did much for the cause of Christ. He was a gallant Confederate soldier, and as true a soldier of the cross, and for the latter service he will be long remembered.

Rev. D. Hudson on the same day fell on sleep. He was one of the pioneer preachers in Oconee county, South Carolina, and Transylvania and Jackson counties, North Carolina. Those who knew him best praise his faithfulness and devotion to the cause of his Master.

Efforts to obtain facts in the lives and ministries of these two brethren were almost fruitless.

Young John Pope, one of the most eminent Baptist laymen of South Carolina, departed this life about April 1st of the present year. Judge Pope was born in Newberry April 10, 1841. He was educated at Newberry Male Academy and at Furman University, graduating from the latter institution in 1860. He had begun the study of law under that noted jurist, John Belton O'Neal, when the Civil War broke out. During that struggle he proved himself a faithful and gallant soldier and officer. In 1865 he resumed the study of law, and was soon admitted to the bar. He was district judge of Newberry from 1865 to 1868, and was for one year a member of the House of Representatives from that county. In 1890 he was elected Attorney General of South Carolina, and one year later was promoted to the office of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the State. Five years later he was elected to succeed Judge McIver, at his death, as Chief Justice of South Carolina. This last position he worthily filled until 1907, when because of failing health, and from a sense of duty, he voluntarily resigned the office of Chief Justice and retired to private life. He spent the evening of his life in his native town, Newberry, where he was honored and loved.

Judge Pope was a man of fine sympathies, beautiful courtesy, and marked ability. He was pure minded, large hearted, and had a keen sense of right. In very early life he united with the Baptist church, of which he remained a faithful member until his death.

CONSTITUTION.

We the representatives of the constituent body of the State Convention of the Baptist denomination in South Carolina, do agree upon the following articles as forming the Constitution of the Convention, and as the basis of the union:

ARTICLE I.

This body shall be styled the State Convention of the Baptist denomination in South Carolina.

ARTICLE II.

The comprehensive purpose of the Convention shall be: The union of the Baptists throughout the State in efforts to advance the kingdom of Christ in the world.

The Convention will claim no right to lord it over God's heritage, believing that the right of government, under Christ, is vested in the churches themselves.

ARTICLE III.

Special objects fostered by the Convention, as tending to accomplish its comprehensive purpose, shall be: The Preaching of the Gospel in destitute portions of the State; the work of Colportage, including distribution of God's Word and approved Christian literature; the interests of Home Missions, Foreign Missions, Sunday School and Temperance; the work of Christian Education; the maintenance of an Orphanage; and the care of Aged Ministers and the families of deceased ministers.
